

House Resolution No. 1086

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens or distinguished themselves through significant personal achievement; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Tessa Hartley, of St. James, Missouri, who has won the 2008 Igniting Creative Energy (ICE) Challenge, Elementary Division, National Grand Prize; and

Whereas, Tessa Hartley is the daughter of Dennis and Lisa Hartley; and

Whereas, Tessa Hartley is a kindergartner at Lucy Wortham James Elementary School, in St. James, Missouri, where an awards ceremony will be held for her which will include the school's principal, Kim Shockley; and

Whereas, Tessa Hartley's entry was an ABC book of recycling tips for small school-age children, and it was selected out of five hundred entries in the K-5 elementary division; and

Whereas, Tessa Hartley is the youngest winner and only kindergarten winner in the seven years of the Challenge and the first winner from Missouri; and

Whereas, Tessa Hartley won a five-day trip for two to Hawaii and a three-day trip for two to Washington, D.C. to attend the 2008 Energy Efficiency Forum in June 2008:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our most sincere congratulations to Tessa Hartley on this illustrious occasion, with our best wishes for continued success in her most promising future, and to convey to her the pride she has instilled in all Missourians; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Tessa Hartley, as a measure of our esteem for her.
